MEDIA RELEASE

Police Arrest Fake Solider, Seize Firearms, Ammo

Police arrested one man and seized two firearms, along with a magazine and several rounds of ammunition, during exercises in the Western and Southern Divisions today.

At approximately 7:10 am, during an exercise on 1st January 2024, officers of the Western Division, acting on intelligence, proceeded to Salandy Street, Diego Martin. When they arrived, they observed a man dressed in camouflage, in possession of a shotgun. The 25-year-old from Quarry Street, Diego Martin, was arrested and the firearm seized. Enquiries are continuing into the matter.

Earlier in the Southern Division, around 1:30 am, acting on information, Cpl Bahadur and a party of officers went to a track off Bayshore Road, Marabella, and searched the area. One firearm, loaded with a magazine and seven rounds of 45 caliber ammunition, were found hidden in a stack of wood. The firearm was seized for further processing and Cpl Bahadur is continuing enquiries into the find.
