MEDIA RELEASE

$70,000 Bail for Breach of Protection Order

A 44-year-old man from Toco was granted bail in the sum of $70,000 with a surety when he appeared before Magistrate Sarah De Silva at the Sangre Grande Magistrates' Court, on Tuesday 20th September, 2022. The accused was charged with two counts of Breach of Protection Order.

As part of the bail conditions, the accused is to refrain from communicating with the victim, unless it concerns the welfare of their child. He must also report once per week to a police station in the Eastern district.

He is expected to reappear in court on 19th January, 2023.

According to a police report, on 12th September, 2022, at around 3.15 pm a woman was at her home, when her ex-husband arrived to drop off their daughter. Whilst there he allegedly used threatening language, causing the woman to fear for her life. Also on the 13th September, the woman was at her home when her ex-husband again allegedly used threatening language, causing her to fear for her life.

Officers of the Toco Special Victims Department conducted an investigation into the matter. As a result of the investigation the accused was arrested and charged.

Charges were laid by WPC Farrier.

The exercise was investigated by Superintendent Claire Guy-Alleyne, W/ASP Bridgelal, and W/Inspector Bacchus.
