Firearms, Ammunition Seized During Anti-Crime Operations

The Trinidad and Tobago Police Service (TTPS) continues to intensify its efforts to combat crime, following a series of anti-crime exercises conducted between August 19th and 20th, 2025.

During one exercise in Carenage in the Western Division, officers acting on intelligence searched an abandoned structure at Moya Trace and Haig Street, where they recovered one .38 Special revolver and two rounds of .38 ammunition.

Later that day, IATF officers executed a search at a residence in Cunupia, where a firearm fitted with a magazine and two rounds of .380 ammunition was discovered and seized. Two persons were arrested in connection with this incident.

Additionally, officers responded swiftly to a report of a robbery in St. Joseph, where a vehicle stolen at gunpoint was later recovered intact in Prizgar Lands. The vehicle was taken to the Besson Street Police Station for safekeeping.

Investigations are continuing.
