MEDIA RELEASE

$350k Bail for 'Plumpy Boss'

A suspected gang member was granted $350,000 bail with a surety, when he appeared before Master Shabaana Shah at the Master 4, North Court, Port of Spain yesterday.

MESCACH EMMANUEL, alias 'PLUMPY BOSS', 26, of Beetham Gardens, Port of Spain, was charged on Monday 1st July with the following offenses:

- Being a gang member, contrary to Section 5(1)(b) of the Anti-Gang Act 4 of 2021 as amended.
- Professing to be a gang member in order to intimidate persons, contrary to Section 5(1)(d)(ii) of the Anti-Gang Act 4 of 2021 as amended.
- Professing to be a gang member in order to promote a gang, contrary to Section 5(1)(d)(iii) of the Anti-Gang Act 4 of 2021 as amended.

Emmanuel was arrested on 29th June, 2024, after officers from the Special Investigations Unit (SIU) - Gang Investigations Team conducted investigations into several audio-visual music videos published on social media. The music videos allegedly featured the accused professing to be a member of a gang.

As part of the bail conditions, the accused must report once a week to a specified police station. The matter was adjourned to 26th July 2024.
