A 37-year-old man was denied bail today when he appeared before a Sangre Grande Magistrate charged with seven counts of sexual penetration of his 16-year-old daughter.

The accused was remanded into custody and will reappear before the court on October 13th, 2021.

The man was arrested and charged by WPC Brooks of the Eastern Division Child Protection Unit (CPU) with the offences on September 20th.

The charges stem from a police report made in August 2021 in which a mother detailed the alleged sexual abuse of her daughter by the girl's father.

The incidents of sexual intercourse are reported to have occurred during the period February 2019 to August 2021 while at the man's house.

The suspect was subsequently arrested and charged with seven counts of sexual penetration of a child.

The investigation was spearheaded by W/Superintendent (Ag), Claire Guy-Alleyne with direct supervision by Sgt Baptiste of the Eastern Division CPU.
