Two Killed, One Held and Pistol Recovered in Police-Involved Shooting Incident

Two men were killed and one arrested during a police-involved shooting incident which occurred in the Central Division yesterday morning.

Reports say officers of the Central Division Task Force responded to a report of robbery at a supermarket at Mon Plasir Road, Cunupia, around 11 am on Thursday 4th March, 2021.

Officers were soon engaged in a high-speed chase, as the suspects attempted to escape in a motor vehicle. During the chase, there was an exchange of gunfire between the suspects and the officers.

The suspects' vehicle came to a stop along Boy Cato Road, Las Lomas. The men then exited the vehicle and continued shooting in the direction of the officers.

The officers in accordance with the Use of Force Policy, returned fire in the direction of the suspects. Two were shot and died at the scene, while a third was arrested and a fourth escaped.

One Glock pistol loaded with a magazine containing two rounds of ammunition was recovered from the scene. A quantity of cash, alcohol and cigarettes which were stolen from the supermarket, were also recovered.
