MEDIA RELEASE

$2,500 Fine for Man Found Driving Without DP, COI

A 29-year-old Erin man was fined $2,500 for driving while never been issued a driver's permit, failure to produce a driver's permit, and driving without a valid certificate of insurance.

JEROMY RAMPERSAD, of Arena Village, Erin, was fined by Magistrate Nizam Khan at the Siparia Magistrates' Court for the offences which stemmed from an incident on Wednesday 17th February, 2021.

Cpl (Ag) Buntin along with WPCs Anatol-Sylvester, Butler-Moses and Collins of the Siparia Municipal Police Station were conducting routine checks along the S.S Erin Main Road when they stopped a white Nissan B12 driven by a man.

When officers requested the man's driver's permit and certificate of insurance, he admitted that he had never been issued with one. He was subsequently arrested and charged by WPC Butler-Moses.
