MEDIA RELEASE

185 Operations Conducted, Firearms, Ammunition and Drugs Seized and Over 700 Traffic Offences Detected

Law enforcement officers have intensified their operations over the last 72 hours, conducting a total of 185 coordinated operations targeting crime, traffic violations, and illegal firearms.

A total of 1,185 searches were conducted and 94 traffic operations carried out across all policing divisions resulting in the detection of 715 traffic offences and the arrest of 81 individuals. These efforts reflect a continued commitment to public safety and law enforcement presence across targeted areas.

Among the key outcomes:

- 70 priority offenders were identified and targeted during operations.
- 8 illegal firearms were recovered, including 4 pistols, 2 revolvers, 1 shotgun, and 1 rifle, highlighting the ongoing threat posed by illegal weapon possession.
- Quantities of Cannabis Seized
- Ammunition recovered totaled 47 rounds across multiple calibers:
 - 10 rounds of 9mm
 - 16 rounds of .380
 - 7 rounds of .38
 - 10 rounds of 5.56mm
 - 4 rounds of 12-gauge

“These results are a clear indication that sustained operational pressure can yield tangible outcomes in the fight against crime and traffic violations,” said Commissioner of Police, Allister Guevarro. “The officers remain vigilant and committed to disrupting criminal activity, protecting communities, and ensuring safer roads.”

The operations also involved collaboration with various agencies and were intelligence-driven, focusing not just on enforcement, but deterrence and community reassurance.
