Sub Machine Gun, Ammo Seized by Gang Intel Detectives in Sangre Grande

Police are continuing investigations into the seizure of a sub machine gun, magazines and an assortment of ammunition which were seized yesterday in the North Eastern Settlement, Sangre Grande.

According to police reports, during the period 5 am and 9 am on August 28th, Eastern Division Task Force and Eastern Division Gang and Intelligence Unit (EDGIU) police officers were executing several raids at the homes of priority offenders in the area as part of ongoing gang and crime suppression exercises.

During one of the exercises, the team of police officers raided an abandoned building where they allegedly found and seized a Mac 11 Sub Machine Gun with two extended magazines and 31 rounds of nine-millimetre, two rounds of 5.56 and one round of .380 ammunition, a black ski mask and a pair of gloves.

No arrests have since been made in connection with the find, however, PC Singh of the EDGIU is leading enquiries into the matter.
