MEDIA RELEASE

$867,945 in cocaine seized

Cocaine value at $867,945 was found and seized by officers of Northern Division Task Force in the Tunapuna district on Friday 2nd October, 2020.

The exercise was spearheaded Snr Supt. Ramkhelawan and coordinated by Inspector Pitt and supervised by Sgt La Pierre and Cpl Superville and PC Simon.

As a result of information received, surveillance was conducted over an extensive period of time.

Officers proceeded to a business place located in the Tunapuna district, where they found inside of a box prepared for shipping, two packets affixed and conceal in the lining. The packages were seized and a field narcotic test confirmed it to be cocaine. They were weighted and amounted to 328.92 grams with a street value of $867,945.
