MEDIA RELEASE

Man, 54, Remanded on 4 Sexual Charges Against Daughter, 14

A 54-year-old man was remanded into custody last Friday after appearing virtually before the Port-of-Spain Magistrates' Court, charged with four counts of sexual offences against his 14-year-old daughter.

The accused was remanded by Magistrate Maureen Baboolal-Gafoor until his nationality could be determined.

He was arrested and charged on July 13th with one count of Sexual Touching of a Child and three counts of Sexual Penetration of a Child by WPC Kerr, of the Western Division Child Protection Unit (CPU).

The charges stem from a March 2nd, 2023, police report in which a girl told officers of the Maraval Police Station of the alleged acts performed against her.

CPU detectives later took the lead in the probe in which it was discovered that on dates unknown between December 2022 to February 2023, the accused allegedly sexually touched his daughter's vagina and had sexual intercourse with her at his home.

He is expected to reappear the court tomorrow.

The investigation was supervised by Superintendent, Claire Guy-Alleyne, Assistant Superintendent (Ag.), Christopher Aroon, and Inspector (Ag.), Klevys Simmons, of the Special Victims Department.
