MEDIA RELEASE

Teen Granted $50,000 Bail for Sexual Penetration of Girl, 12

A 17-year-old boy of Signal Hill, Tobago, was granted $50,000 bail when he appeared before a Scarborough Magistrate on December 22nd charged with sexual penetration of a minor.

He is expected to reappear before the court on January 19th, 2021.

The boy's mother will act as surety as he was also ordered to report to the Shirvan Road Police Station once a week.

The charge arose out of a report made by a 12-year-old girl to police that while at the Signal Hill Recreational Grounds, a boy held her down and allegedly sexually assaulted her.

W/Cpl (Ag.) Clarke, of the Tobago Child Protection Unit (CPU), launched an investigation into the details of the report and subsequently arrested and charged the accused for one count of sexual penetration of a minor.
