One Arrested, Cocaine Seize in St James and San Fernando

Police officers across two divisions arrested one man and seized quantities of cocaine during separate anti-crime exercises conducted in the St James and San Fernando districts.

On Tuesday 18th November, 2025, around 2:50 p.m., based on intelligence, officers proceeded to the Woodbrook Cemetery along Mucurapo Road, St James. A search of the surrounding area was conducted, where officers discovered a black plastic bag concealed in a tree. The bag contained 25.1 grams of cocaine, $363.00 TTD in cash, and one digital scale.

The exercise was spearheaded by Snr Supt Williams, coordinated by Insp Basant, supervised by Ag/Cpl Piper, with support from other officers of the St James Police Station and the Western Division Community Oriented Policing Section.

In a separate incident, around 4:00 p.m. on the same date, officers conducted an exercise in the La Romain district.

During the exercise, PC Lalloo conducted a search on a 29-year-old man of Charles Street, La Romain, along the Southern Main Road. He was found in possession of 18.2 grams of cocaine.
