Multiple Arrests, Firearms, Ammunition, Cannabis Plants Seized

A series of intelligence-led police operations across Trinidad resulted in the seizure of firearms, ammunition, illegal drugs, camouflage gear, and multiple arrests, as officers continued intensified anti-crime strategies under Operation Festive Shield and other targeted initiatives.

On Tuesday 2nd December, 2025, a targeted Roving Road Check and House Search Operation was conducted in the western area of the North Central Division. Around 8:55 pm, officers responded to information regarding a man armed with a firearm at Mt. Dor Extension Terrace, Champs Fleurs. A search was conducted at the home of a 33-year-old man where officers discovered one shotgun hidden in the bedroom ceiling along with three (3) 12-gauge cartridges wrapped in a pair of camouflage trousers. The man was arrested and charged for: Possession of Firearm, Possession of Ammunition, Possession of Camouflage clothing.

The exercise was initiated by ACP Singh, Snr. Supt. Gift, and officers of the NCDTF-West.

In a separate incident, acting on information received at 10:50 pm, officers conducted Operation Festive Shield throughout the Las Lomas Police District. Officers proceeded to Ragbir Gunness Street, St. Helena, where they recovered one revolver and one (1) round of .38 ammunition. The exercise was spearheaded by Snr. Supt. Bhagwandeem.
