MEDIA RELEASE

Eleven Arrested, Molly, Cocaine, Cannabis Seized

Eleven persons have been arrested, and several quantities of narcotics seized, during exercises conducted across multiple divisions yesterday.

Between 1:00 pm and 6:00 pm on 5 April 2025, officers of the Southern Division Task Force conducted an intelligence-led operation throughout the division. The exercise resulted in the arrest of six persons:

- A 29-year-old man from Toruba for possession of 63.8 grams of cannabis.
- A 33-year-old man from Bayshore, Marabella, on enquiries.
- A 74-year-old woman from Corinth, San Fernando, for possession of 90 grams of cannabis.
- A 36-year-old man from Mon Repos for possession of 64 grams of cannabis.
- A 44-year-old man from Cocoyea, San Fernando, for possession of 62 grams of cannabis.
- A 32-year-old man from Bonne Aventure Road on enquiries related to the larceny of a motor vehicle.

During this exercise, officers proceeded to Bonne Aventure Road, Gasparillo, where they recovered a silver Nissan Note, reported stolen from the Mon Repos district on 19 December 2021.

Meanwhile, between 2:30 pm and 5:30 pm in the North Eastern Division, a team of officers from the Barataria Criminal Investigations Department (CID), Barataria Police Station, North Eastern Division Task Force, North Eastern Division Gang and Intelligence Unit, and the Canine Unit conducted a search at a residence on Jojo Lane, El Socorro. While searching the ceiling of the apartment, officers discovered a plastic bag containing 123 grams of cocaine. A 28-year-old man and his 26-year-old girlfriend were arrested in connection with the find.

In the San Juan district, a team of officers from the North Eastern Division Task Force and the Canine Unit conducted a search at an address on Hollis Street, Petit Bourg. They discovered and seized 62 transparent packets containing a total of 112 grams of cannabis, along with 30 plastic packets containing nine grams of MDMA, commonly known as Molly (Methylenedioxymethamphetamine). A 45-year-old man was arrested in connection with the find.

Additionally, in the North Central Division, officers of the North Central Division Task Force Areas East and West, along with the Canine Unit, conducted an exercise, during which one man was arrested for possession of 544 grams of cannabis.

While conducting an exercise in the St Augustine area, officers searched a bushy area off the roadway at Benny Lane. There, they found 1.7 kg of cannabis hidden.

Finally, in the Central Division, around 5:10 pm, officers conducted a search of the home of a known offender. During the search, 80 grams of cannabis were discovered and seized. A 40-year-old man was arrested in connection with the find.

Enquiries into these matters are ongoing.
