MEDIA RELEASE

TTPS Extends Condolences to Family, Friends of Sgt Shurland John

Ag Commissioner of Police, McDonald Jacob, the executive, and officers of the Trinidad and Tobago Police Service (TTPS), extend deepest condolences to the family and friends of No. 12523 Sgt Shurland John.

Sgt John, 51, passed away at his home on Wednesday 22nd September, 2021 as a result of complications due to colorectal cancer. He was ailing for the past two years. He was last attached to the Cumuto Police Station in the Northern Division.

He enlisted in the Police Service on August 2nd, 1989 during which time, while attached to the Guard and Emergency Branch (GEB) he earned the nickname "ZT" (Zero Tolerance). He will be dearly missed by his colleagues who described him as a hardworking, supportive team player who showed dedication and devotion. They will remember him as reliable and well-disciplined, and as an officer who discharged his duties willingly and professionally.

Sgt John, who lived in Homeland Gardens, Cunupia, leaves to mourn his wife, Beverly, and his sons, Matthias, and Malique John.

His funeral service will be held tomorrow.
