MEDIA RELEASE

Man Arrested in Stolen Vehicle, Ammunition Seized in Operation Blue Line

Police arrested one man, seized ammunition and recovered a stolen vehicle, during exercises on Friday 1st, December 2023, in the Port of Spain and North Central Divisions.

As part of Operation Blue line exercises, officers conducted a warrant in the Santa Cruz District, nothing mentioned in the warrant was found, however the officers searched a bushy area located at Perouse Avenue, Mc Carthy Street, Cantaro Village, Upper Santa Cruz and found and seized a bag containing three 9mm rounds of ammunition and thirty-three 5.56mm rounds of ammunition.

Based on intelligence information, officers then proceeded to Hololo Road, Santa Cruz, where they found a vehicle that was earlier reported to be involved in a Robbery with Aggravation incident, in the district. Further checks revealed that the vehicle which was reported stolen in November, in the Morvant District, had a tampered ignition.

The vehicle was wrecked and conveyed to the Santa Cruz Police Station.

The exercise was spearheaded by Snr Supt Edwards, W/Supt George and Ag/ASP Callender, coordinated by Ag/Insp Ransingh, supervised by No. 18586 W/Cpl George and included members of the Santa Cruz Criminal Investigations Department, Santa Cruz Police Station and North Eastern Division Gang and Intelligence Unit.

PC Bernard of the Santa Cruz CID and PC Phillip of the Morvant CID are continuing enquiries.
