MEDIA RELEASE

Man, 44, Charged with 4 Counts of Sexual Assault to Daughter

A 44-year-old man who was charged with four counts of sexual assault on his daughter was granted $350,000 bail with a surety by a Rio Claro Magistrate on Wednesday.

The accused, who resides in East Trinidad, was instructed to stay 300 metres away from the girl, not to visit or enter the home where she resides nor be found in the vicinity of the home.

He was also ordered to visit his district police station three times per week as part of his bail conditions.

He was arrested and charged on May 17th by WPC Ash-McKenzie of the Eastern Division, Child Protection Unit (CPU), with three counts of sexual touching and one count of sexual penetration of a minor, respectively.

He was indicted following a probe launched into a police report in which CPU detectives were told that a girl was allegedly sexually assaulted on several occasions by a male relative over a three-year period.

The man is scheduled to reappear before the court on June 15th, 2022, to answer the charges.
