MEDIA RELEASE

Contractor on Assault Charges Granted $75,000 Bail

A 46-year-old contractor was granted bail in the sum of $75,000, when he appeared before Magistrate Indra Ramoo- Haynes at the Tunapuna Magistrates' Court on the 28th September, 2022.

The accused of St Augustine was charged with Assault Occasioning a Wound, Assault by Beating and Malicious Damage.

As part of the bail condition, the accused was ordered not to communicate with the victim indirectly or directly, unless it regards the welfare of their children, nor is he to behave in an aggressive manner to the victim.

The matter was postponed to October 26th 2022.

According to police reports, on August 30th, 2022, a woman was at her home, when she got into an argument with a man, during which time she was allegedly kicked in the stomach and slapped in the face.

In a similar incident on September 21st, 2022, the woman was allegedly slapped in her face and her mobile device was damaged during another argument with the man.

The matter was investigated by officers of the Gender-Based Violence Unit-Northern Division, who arrested the man. He was later charged by WPC Murren.

Investigations were supervised by W/Supt. Claire Guy-Alleyne, W/ASP (Ag) Bridglal, Inspector Stanley and W/Cpl. Edwards.
