MEDIA RELEASE

CoP Urges Citizens: Stand With TTPS

As the country approaches its first 72 hours of the SOE, I want to inform the citizens that the TTPS is using the integration of covert operations and strategic intelligence which will fundamentally shift the dimensions of this State of Emergency, from the traditional reactive enforcement to proactive disruption. This is not just policing; it's precision-guided intervention. But these gains are only sustainable through partnership.

I am urging every citizen of Trinidad and Tobago to stand shoulder-to-shoulder with law enforcement during this critical juncture. Let us reject the noise of naysayers and keyboard warriors, individuals who flood mainstream and social media with unsolicited commentary, yet lack any credible policing experience. Most have never arrested a suspect, laid a charge, or faced the sobering accountability of a courtroom.

This moment demands unity, not distraction. When we support our officers and amplify the truth over speculation, we strengthen our communities and reaffirm our collective commitment to safety and progress.
