Tobago Man Denied Bail for Sexual Touching of Girl, 10

A Tobago man was denied bail after appearing before the Scarborough Magistrates' Court yesterday charged with sexual touching of a ten-year-old girl.

JESSIE ROMEO, 30, a barber, of Centre Street, Lambeau, was denied bail by Magistrate Jo-Anne Connor.

He will reappear before the court on June 17th, 2021.

ROMEO was arrested and charged by WPC Small, of the Tobago Division Child Protection Unit (CPU), on May 19th, following investigations into a report made to the police by a girl that she was allegedly assaulted by a man earlier this month.

According to the girl, on May 9th, she was asleep at her aunt's home when a man entered the bedroom, laid on top of her and touched her on her private part and bottom.

Investigations were spearheaded by W/Superintendent (Ag.) Claire Guy-Alleyne, and supervised by Sgt. Miller, of the Tobago CPU, which led to ROMEO being charged with one count of sexual touching of a child.
