MEDIA RELEASE

Police Respond to Protest, Blockages in North Eastern Settlement

Officers of the Guard and Emergency Branch along with members of the Trinidad and Tobago Fire Service are currently clearing road blockages in North Settlement, Sangre Grande.

According to police reports, during the period 8 am to 10 am on November 28th, 2023, police were alerted to protest demonstrations in the community where several access roads were blocked with garbage and burning debris.

Police officers attached to the Sangre Grande Police Station, Sangre Grande Criminal Investigations Department and the Eastern Division Task Force later responded to preserve order.

Upon arrival, no one was seen in the vicinity of the blockages.

No arrests have been made in connection with the reports thus far.

Law enforcement is monitoring the situation and is urging citizens to adhere to the rule of law.
