MEDIA RELEASE

3 Arrested – Pistol, Ammunition and Marijuana Seized

Three persons were arrested yesterday during an anti-crime exercise conducted in San Juan between the hours of 2 pm and 5 pm. One person was arrested for possession of 85 grammes of marijuana while two others were arrested on enquiries related to ongoing investigations.

Officers visited several bars, stores, and other areas known for drug-related activities. One semi-automatic Luger pistol, two rounds of nine-millimetre ammunition, and seven rounds of .22 calibre ammunition, were found at a bar under renovation on Second Street, San Juan. Five hundred grammes of marijuana were also found at another location during the exercise.

The exercise included officers of the San Juan Police Station in collaboration with officers of the San Juan Municipal Police Station. It was coordinated by ACP Belfon, Snr Supt Maharaj, Supts Alexander and Ramjohn, and ASPs Beharry and Archibald. It was supervised by Insp Bharath, W/Insp McDonald, Sgts Murray, Mitchell, and Martin, Cpls Dhill, Daniel, Ali, and Gordon. It also included traffic wardens, the Canine Unit, and other North Eastern Division officers.

Enquiries are continuing.
