MEDIA RELEASE

La Brea teen granted $100,000 Bail

CHRISTOPH DELLS, a 19-year-old of Vessigny Village, La Brea, appeared virtually yesterday, before Senior Magistrate Alicia Chankar at the Point Fortin Magistrates' court, charged with School Breaking and Larceny. He was granted $100,000 bail with a surety.

The suspect was charged in connection with a report made on Tuesday 2nd March, 2021. It was reported that on Friday 18th December, 2020, a member of staff secured the National Energy Skills Center (NESC) and left. Upon his return on Tuesday 2nd March, 2021, he observed that the welding shop, located on the northern side of the compound was broken into. He further observed that 29 Milwaukee grinders, two welding curtains, four Fabricator welding plans, one bench cylinder and 16 welding cables were missing. Following the report, WPC Homer of the La Brea Criminal Investigation Department (CID) conducted enquiries, which led to the arrest of the suspect.

The accused is expected to reappear at court virtually on Thursday 1st April, 2021.
