MEDIA RELEASE

Freeport Couple Gets $130,000 Bail on Fraud Charges

A man and his common law wife were both granted $130,000 bail with a surety by a Justice of the Peace on land and car fraud charges.

DAMIAN RAMDATH, 39, a self-employed truck driver and NIKITA KEISHA MUNGAL, 36, self-employed, both of Freeport, Chaguanas, who were charged by PC Ramkissoon of the Fraud Squad, were granted $80,000 and $50,000 with a surety, respectively, by Justice of the Peace Stephen Young.

In the first incident, RAMDATH was jointly charged with MUNGAL for obtaining $26,000 by false pretence following an investigation into a report in which a man told detectives that during May 2016 and June 2016 he allegedly paid the cash to a woman and a man as down payment towards the purchase of a parcel of land located in Exchange, Couva.

According to the man, he was led to believe that the sellers of the land were the owners, however, he later learned they were not.

In the second incident, a man reported to police that he paid a woman $5,000 as down payment for the sale of a Toyota Axio motor vehicle valued at $125,000.

The man told police that upon delivery of the vehicle, he was required to pay the balance of the money, however, the woman allegedly failed to deliver vehicle and attempts to be refunded were unsuccessful.

Following enquiries, RAMDATH and MUNGAL were indicted with the offences.

MUNGAL is scheduled to appear on May 31st, 2022 at the Port-of-Spain Magistrates' Court, while she and RAMDATH will appear on June 17th, 2022, to answer the joint charge.
