MEDIA RELEASE

$100,000 Bail for Sea Lots man

ANTHONY MILLS, a 21-year-old man of Pioneer Drive, Sea Lots, appeared yesterday before Justice of the Peace Abraham Ali charged with possession of cocaine for the purpose of trafficking, obscene language, and resisting arrest. He was granted $100,000 bail with a surety.

Around 6.45pm on Wednesday 7th April, 2021, members of the Port of Spain City Police Task Force were on foot patrol along Charlotte Street. The officers observed a man walking in the opposite direction and frequently glancing at them. That aroused their suspicion. The officers stopped and proceeded to search him, where a clear plastic bag containing cocaine was allegedly found.

PC Lewis attempted to arrest the man, when a struggle ensued and he began using obscene language. With the assistance of other officers, PC Lewis then arrested and conveyed him to the Port of Spain City Police station. He was subsequently charged for the three offences.

Mills is expected to appear before the Port of Spain Magistrates' Court virtually on Tuesday 8th June, 2021.
