MEDIA RELEASE

20 arrested for bathing, cooking, liming, in Tobago

Officers of the Crown Point Police station arrested 20 persons for breaching the Public Health Regulations in Tobago on Monday 25th May, 2020.

The officers received information of a gathering at “No Man’s Land”. The officers then proceeded to “No Man’s Land” and found 16 adults and four children bathing, grilling fish, and cooking other meats. There was also a cooler filled with drinks, and the 20 persons were all gathered together.

The children range in ages 14 years to 16 years. The police officers informed them of the breach of the Regulations and cautioned them.

All persons were arrested, and are expected to appear at the Scarborough Magistrate Court today.
