Man, 51, Held following Cutlass Attack During Land Dispute in Debe

A 51-year-old man is currently assisting police with their investigations into a land dispute incident in Debe which left a 28-year-old man nursing chop wounds.

According to police reports, at 7 pm on September 29th, two men were involved in a land dispute during which the 51-year-old man allegedly armed himself with a cutlass and dealt the other a chop to his left hand and left leg.

Police were later alerted and officers of the Barrackpore Police Station responded and detained the suspect.

Police also seized the weapon and conveyed the suspect to the police station pending further enquiries.

The injured man was taken to hospital by relatives and was treated for non-life threatening injuries.

PC Bhattan is continuing investigations.
