MEDIA RELEASE

5 in Court for Robbery, House Breaking and Sexual Assault

Five men appeared before the Arima Magistrates' Court earlier this week charged with robbery with aggravation, house breaking and grievous sexual assault following various reports in the Arima area.

The men were arrested following investigations by officers attached to the Arima Police Station Criminal Investigations Department (CID).

In the first matter, JABARI PAUL, of St Paul Street, East Dry River, in company with a 17-year-old boy of Lodge Place, East Dry River and of Ward Lane, El Socorro, appeared on Monday before Magistrate Indra Ramoo-Haynes charged with robbery with aggravation, possession of a stolen vehicle and possession of firearm and ammunition.

The two were denied bail and the matter postponed to November 15th, 2021.

In the second matter, DARION HOLDER, 22, of Race Course Road, Carapo appeared before Magistrate Debby Ann Bassaw at the Arima Magistrates' Court on October 18th and pleaded not guilty. HOLDER was granted $80,000 bail with surety. The matter was adjourned to November 16th.

A 45-year-old man, of Longden Street, Arima, also appeared before Magistrate Debby Ann Bassaw, yesterday, charged with grievous sexual assault. The man was granted $150,000 bail with a surety and will reappear before the court on November 16th.

In another matter, YUDHISTIR SHEOPERSAD, 20, of Lovers Lane, Wallerfield, Arima, is expected to appear today before Magistrate Debby Ann Bassaw, today, to answer the charge of house breaking with intent.
