MEDIA RELEASE

One Held, Stolen Vehicle Recovered in NCD

One man was arrested and a motor vehicle which had been reported stolen, recovered, by officers of the North Central Division yesterday.

A male victim reported to police that he was carrying out deliveries on behalf of his employer on Tuesday 22nd April, 2025, when he left the vehicle which contained a quantity of goods, unattended for five minutes.

He claims when he returned, the vehicle was missing.

Officers of the Arouca Criminal Investigations Department, in collaboration with the St. Joseph Police Station and the NCDTF-East, acting on information received, conducted an exercise shortly after, which resulted in a 23-year-old Tunapuna man being arrested in connection with the matter.

The stolen vehicle was also recovered during the exercise.

Investigations are ongoing into the above matter.
