MEDIA RELEASE

One Arrested, Narcotics Seized in WD

One man was arrested and a quantity of narcotics seized during an anti-crime exercise conducted in the Western Division yesterday.

On Saturday 5th July, 2025, a team of officers from the Western Division Task Force, with assistance from the K9 Unit, conducted an anti-crime exercise in the Western Division. During the operation, the officers executed a search warrant at a residence on Clarence Street, St. James, in relation to dangerous drugs. While searching a bedroom, officers discovered a brown canvas bag containing eleven transparent plastic packages, each containing cannabis.

The narcotics, which weighed a total of 311.3 grammes, were seized. A 21-year-old man of the said address was arrested in connection with the discovery.

Investigations into the matter are ongoing.
