MEDIA RELEASE

Six Held, Two Firearms Seized in ND and ED Exercises

A Chaguanas man and five Venezuelan nationals, who are in the country illegally, were arrested and two firearms seized, during anti-crime operations conducted in the Northern Division (ND) and Eastern Divisions yesterday.

The first exercise was conducted between 11 am and 2 pm, on Thursday 13th March, 2025, during which officers of the Northern Division – North Gang Unit, ND Task Force and Pinto Police Station, proceeded to a house at Heights of Guanapo, Arima.

A search was conducted, which resulted in a 22-year-old Chaguanas man being arrested for possession of one Glock 17 pistol, three magazines and 63 rounds of ammunition.

Five Venezuelan nationals who are in the country illegally and found on the premises at the time of the exercise, were also held.

In the second exercise, Northern Division Task Force officers, assisted by the Eastern Division Emergency Response Patrol Unit, proceeded to Clarence Trace, Valencia, where they conducted an exercise around 6 pm, yesterday.

The exercise resulted in the discovery of one Glock 17 pistol loaded with a magazine containing 10 rounds of ammunition, near an abandoned structure.

Investigations are ongoing into the two above matters.
