MEDIA RELEASE

Man, 64, Denied Bail on Sexual Touching Charges Against Girls, 15

A 64-year-old man was remanded into custody after appearing virtually before a Port-of-Spain Magistrate yesterday charged with two counts of sexual touching against two 15-year-old girls.

The accused, who resides in Malabar, was arrested and charged on October 7th, following investigations into two reports made to the Port-of-Spain Child Protection Unit (CPU) by two girls about alleged sexual assaults.

According to the girls, during the period November 31st and December 1st, 2020, a man inappropriately touched them.

CPU detectives, W/Cpl (Ag.) Deonarine and PC Frederick, investigated the matters which led to the arrest of the suspect.

He was later charged with two counts of sexual touching of two children.

The accused is scheduled to reappear before the court on Monday 11th October, 2021.

The investigations were headed by W/Superintendent of Police, Claire Guy-Alleyne.
