Tobago Man Charged for Sexually Assaulting Girl, 13

A 43-year-old man of Argyle, Tobago, will appear before a Scarborough Magistrate today charged with one count of sexual penetration of a child.

The man was arrested by officers of the Tobago Child Protection Unit (CPU) on Tuesday 20th October, 2020, following a report made by a 13-year-old female minor that she was allegedly assaulted by a man whom she knows.

The girl told police that the man, who visited her family's home on the day in question, asked her to make juice for him which she obliged.

He then followed her into the kitchen where he allegedly sexually assaulted her.

The girl confided to her aunt about the act who then reported the incident to the police.

PC Gabby of the Tobago CPU headed the investigation into the report which led to the charge of sexual penetration of a child being laid on the suspect.

He will answer to the charge today, Thursday 22nd October, 2020, when he appears before a Scarborough Magistrate.
