MEDIA RELEASE

Western Division Task Force Seize Firearm, Narcotics

Western Division officers seized a firearm, ammo, and narcotics during an exercise conducted over the last 24 hours.

Between 9 pm on Friday and 3 am on Saturday 5th September, 2024 officers of the Western Division Task Force conducted an intelligence-led exercise, targeting several known drug blocks.

Acting on information, the team proceeded to Sage Street, St. James, where they conducted a search of the area and found 5.3 grammes of cocaine. The narcotics were seized and investigations are continuing by PC Williams.

The team then proceeded to Cameron Road, Petit Valley, where they searched Cameron Park. There, they found a Springfield Pistol loaded with 13 rounds of 9 mm ammunition. The weapon was seized and PC Roberts is continuing enquiries into the find.

These exercises were sanctioned by Snr Supt Henry, coordinated by Insp Grant and Ag/Sgt Dominique, and supervised by Ag/Cpl Peters.
