MEDIA RELEASE

Two Men Charged for Sexually Assaulting Girls, 15

Two men from Tobago are expected to appear before a Scarborough Magistrate today to answer to four counts of sexual assault against two 15-year-old girls.

The duo, ages 19 and 44, were held in two separate exercises by officers of the Child Protection Unit (CPU).

In the first incident, Tobago CPU officers were alerted to a case involving the alleged assault of a 15-year-old girl by a male suspect. The assaults are said to have occurred on two occasions.

PC Mills led the investigation surrounding the details of the report which ended in the arrest of a self-employed 19-year-old man. He has been charged with two counts of sexual penetration of a minor and one count of sexual touching of a minor.

In a second incident, Tobago CPU officers were also made aware of an alleged sexual assault of another 15-year-old girl.

According to the victim's account, while on her way to class on January 16th, 2020 a man walked behind her and touched her on her buttocks.

WPC Procope-Myers launched enquiries into the report which resulted in the arrest of a 44-year-old male landscaper.

He was charged with one count of sexual touching of a minor.

The two investigations were supervised by W/Supt (Ag) George, ASP Nowbutt and Sgt Miller.
