MEDIA RELEASE

$85,000 Bail for Tobago Fisherman on Sexual Penetration Charge Against Girl, 14

A Tobago fisherman was granted $85,000 bail after appearing before a Scarborough Magistrate today charged with sexually penetrating a 14-year-old girl.

DENNIS GEORGE, 34, of Top Road, Pembroke, Tobago, who pleaded not guilty to the offence, was ordered by Magistrate Jo-Anne Connor to stay 100 feet away from the girl's home and from her school as part of his bail conditions.

GEORGE will reappear before the court on September 17th.

He was charged by W/Cpl (Ag.) Clarke, of the Tobago Division Child Protection Unit (CPU) on August 16th following a police report in June 2021 that a man had sexual intercourse with a 14-year-old girl.

According to the police report, on the night of June 20th, the girl awoke from sleep and went to her kitchen located downstairs her home. The girl said she was led to the back of the house by a man where the alleged act is said to have occurred. Further investigations into the report revealed that the man regularly parked a stone's throw away from the girl's home where he would usually fish. The suspect was later arrested and charged with one count of sexual penetration of a child.
