Two teenagers were among three suspects arrested and a pistol and quantities of ammunition and marijuana seized by officers of the South Western Division, during an anti-crime exercise conducted in the Point Fortin district yesterday.

During the exercise conducted on Wednesday 18th September 2019, officers on mobile patrol along Adventure Road, Point Fortin, had cause to stop and search a white Nissan Wingroad motor vehicle, with three male occupants.

The search resulted in officers finding a black bag containing one Taurus pistol loaded with a magazine containing three rounds of ammunition and 34 grammes of marijuana, in the lap of one of the suspects.

The three occupants of the car; a 20-year old and two 17-year-olds, all of La Brea, were arrested in connection with the finds.
