MEDIA RELEASE

Contractor, 33, Charged with Fraudulent Conversion Granted $40,000 Bail

A 33-year-old contractor, who was charged with fraudulent conversion of $12,625, was granted $40,000 bail today when he appeared virtually before the Princes Town Magistrates' Court.

RODNEY RAJPAULSINGH, of Forest Reserve, Fyzabad, is expected to reappear before the court on May 6th, 2022, to answer to the charge.

RAJPAULSINGH was indicted on April 7th by PC Kissoon of the Fraud Squad South Office following a police report in which a man told police he allegedly paid another man a quantity of cash which represented full payment towards 11 meters of concrete and rental of a line pipe for concrete.

The items, according to the police report, were expected to be delivered to the buyer in February this year. This, however, allegedly did not occur and efforts to receive a refund proved futile.

Following investigations and police operations, the suspect was arrested and subsequently charged with one count fraudulent conversion of $12,625.
