Barrackpore Man Charged with Sexual Penetration, Kidnapping and False Imprisonment

A 29-year-old man was granted bail with a surety in the sum of $100,000, or a cash alternative of $10,000, when he appeared before Senior Magistrate Indira R. Misir – Gosine at the Princes Town Magistrates' Court yesterday.

The man from Barrackpore was charged with three counts of sexual penetration, kidnapping and false imprisonment. The matter was adjourned to Wednesday 3rd November, 2021.

Around 10:50 pm on Sunday 3rd October, 2021, Insp Ramlogan together with officers of the Southern Division Task Force and Barrackpore Police proceeded a residence in Barrackpore, after receiving information that a girl had been kidnapped and was being held captive. Upon arrival at the location, the officers met a 17-year-old girl and the accused. The girl reported to police that she was being kept against her will. The accused was arrested and the girl was placed in the care of her mother.

Cpl Khan continued enquires, recorded statements and conducted interviews into the matter, which led to the accused being charged with three counts of sexual penetration, kidnapping and false imprisonment.
