MEDIA RELEASE

Man, 42, Denied Bail for Attacking Wife with Hammer

A 42-year-old gardener was denied bail last Wednesday after appearing before a Mayaro Magistrate, charged with a series of offences into alleged attacks on his wife.

The accused was remanded into custody pending tracing until his next hearing on April 11th, 2022.

The man was arrested and charged on March 8th by WPC Bishop of the Eastern Division Gender-Based Violence Unit (GBVU) with assault by beating, inflicting grievous bodily harm and choking with intent to render unconscious.

The charges stem from a report in which a woman told police that while at home on February 28th, a male relative arrived at the location and proceeded to attack her.

The woman, police were told, was choked, cuffed and attacked with a hammer on two occasions.

Investigations were spearheaded by Superintendent of Police (Ag.) Claire Guy-Alleyne and Insp Bacchus of the GBVU.
