MEDIA RELEASE

Security Officer on $50,000 Bail for Fraud

A security officer was granted $50,000 bail when he appeared before Justice of the Peace, Abraham Ali, charged with obtaining $21,000 by falsely pretending to be the owner of a motor vehicle.

On August 22nd, TESFA THOMAS, 34, of Romain Lands, Morvant, was charged by WPC Kennedy.

He is expected to appear before a Port-of-Spain Magistrate on October 21st.

Sometime in December 2017, a report was made to the Fraud Squad by the legitimate owner of the vehicle that her Nissan B15 vehicle was missing.

After a thorough investigation, the vehicle was located and seized by police officers.

THOMAS was arrested for allegedly representing himself as the legitimate owner.
