MEDIA RELEASE

No Bail for Man Charged with Sexually Touching Niece, 11

A 38-year-old Golconda man was denied bail on Monday after appearing before a San Fernando Magistrate charged with sexually touching his 11-year-old niece.

The accused was remanded into custody by Magistrate Armina Deonarinesingh pending living arrangements and consideration of bail.

He is expected to reappear before the court on Friday 17th September, 2021.

The suspect was charged by WPC Quashie-Gay, of the Southern Division CPU, on September 12th, following a police report made on September 9th by a 11-year-old girl that her uncle allegedly touched her inappropriately.

During the course of the investigation, CPU officers discovered that while the girl was a passenger in a vehicle driven by a man known to her, the suspect allegedly placed his hands on her upper thigh and on her private part.

The suspect was subsequently arrested yesterday and later charged with one count of sexual touching of a child.
