Rio Claro Man, 32, to Appear in Court for House Breaking and Larceny

A 32-year-old man is scheduled to appear virtually tomorrow before a Rio Claro magistrate charged in connection with a House Breaking and Larceny incident which occurred in the district on December 5th.

KEVON PARRIS, a labourer, of Navet Village, Rio Claro, was arrested on December 6th and charged on December 9th with House Breaking and Larceny by PC Mohammed of the Rio Claro Criminal Investigations Department (CID) who led the enquiries.

According to police reports, at 12.55 pm on December 5th, a Rio Claro homeowner secured his property by locking all doors and windows and went to work.

When the man returned at 8:30 pm that day, he reportedly discovered his home broken into and observed a cell phone, a headlight with two chargers and $1000 missing.

He gave no one permission to enter his home or take or remove anything.

A report was made to the Rio Claro Police Station and a team of CID detectives supervised by Sgt Maharaj visited the scene and carried out investigations into the incident.

PARRIS was later traced and charged with the offence.
