REGGIE WILSON, of St Helena Village, Matelot, who pleaded guilty to careless driving and driving without a certificate of insurance, was disqualified by Magistrate Nanette Forde-John when he appeared virtually at the Sangre Grande Magistrates' Court.

WILSON was also fined $3,500 for failing to have a certificate of insurance and $1,500 for careless diving.

He was charged by PC Walcott, of the Matelot Police Station, who conducted further enquiries into a road traffic accident report made by a woman.
