MEDIA RELEASE

Firearm, Ammo Seized in WD

A firearm and several rounds of ammunition were seized by officers from the Western Division during exercises today.

Between 11:30 am and 1 pm on 2nd August 2024, officers from the West End Police Station conducted an anti-crime exercise in the Upper Blue Basin Road area, Diego Martin. Acting on intelligence, the officers proceeded to a nearby bamboo patch where they conducted an extensive search of the area. During the search, the team found a black plastic bag containing one brown and black firearm fitted with a magazine containing 30 rounds of 7.62mm ammunition. The firearm was seized and taken to the West End Police Station pending further enquiries.

This exercise was spearheaded and sanctioned by Snr Supt Henry, Supt Williams, Asp Lynch, and Insp Perry, and was coordinated and supervised by Sgt Joefield, Ag Cpl Seebaran, and WPC Bridgewater.
