MEDIA RELEASE

Gun and Ammunition Found in Tobago Villa, Two Arrested

Two men were arrested after a firearm was allegedly found at a villa at Mt. Hay Trace, Prospect during the execution of an arms and ammunition search warrant.

Earlier today, officers of the Tobago Divisional Task Force and the Shirvan Police Joint Intelligence Patrol Unit conducted a raid and search exercise in the Shirvan Road Police District. Around 7:35 am, they searched a bedroom located on the upper floor on the northern side of the building where they allegedly found a Glock 19 pistol fitted with a magazine containing five rounds of nine-millimetre ammunition. Two men present at the villa were arrested.

Sgt Taylor is continuing enquiries.

The exercise was directed by ACP Hazel, coordinated by Snr Supt Jackman, spearheaded by ASP, Area West, Joseph, and supervised by Sgt Taylor and Cpl (Ag.) Mc Millan.
