MEDIA RELEASE

One Man Held, Firearm and Ammunition Seized in Arima

One man is currently in police custody following the seizure of a firearm and ammunition during a routine patrol in the Arima Business District late Friday night.

Around 11:20 p.m. on Friday, September 26th, 2025, officers of the Arima Police Station and the Arima Criminal Investigations Department (CID) were on mobile patrol when they observed two men acting suspiciously at the corner of King Street and Farfan Street.

The officers approached the men, identified as a 23-year-old of John Lane, Benny Road, Valencia, and a 20-year-old, also of Benny Road, Valencia. One of the suspects fled the scene and discarded a firearm.

A chase ensued, and officers recovered the discarded firearm and apprehended the suspect. A search of his person revealed an extended magazine containing eight (8) rounds of 9mm ammunition.

Enquiries are ongoing.
