MEDIA RELEASE

Gun, Ammunition and Narcotics Discovered in East Port-of-Spain

Officers of the Inter-Agency Task Force and Besson Street Police Station conducted a walk-through exercise in East Port-of-Spain and several items of evidential value were discovered.

On November 4th, during a Crime Eradication Exercise, officers conducted an exercise through abandoned apartments, open lots and along inconspicuous locations.

During the search, officers allegedly unearthed one 5.56 ammunition, three rounds of nine-millimetre ammunition, and two plastic bags containing 87 grammes of marijuana.

The police are asking anyone with information into this discovery to call Crime Stoppers at 800-TIPS (8477) or contact the Besson Street Police Station at 623-1395.

Enquiries are ongoing.
