MEDIA RELEASE

2 Fined $10,000 for Beaching Curfew in Cunupia

Two men, who attempted to outrun police last night, were ordered to pay $5,000 each after pleading guilty to the breach of curfew.

The two, AARON LYNCH, 27, of Dyette Street, Cunupia, and KISHAN RAMPERSAD, 32, of Monroe Road, Cunupia, were given six months to pay the fine or face imprisonment.

The two men were arrested early this morning after police intercepted a vehicle which failed to stop along Bridal Road, Cunupia.

When police officers attempted to stop the vehicle, the driver evaded police by driving violently unto neighbouring roads before swerving into an open yard along Alligator Street.

Police officers successfully brought the vehicle to a stop and immediately ordered the men out. They were unable to provide any documentation which authorised them to be out during the curfew.

They were subsequently arrested and charged.
